

Meet the Teacher

THE BASICS:

Hi! I am Mrs. Robin Accardo to most and Ms. LeCompte to a few. I will answer to either name, and I sometimes get them mixed up myself. I live in Central with my husband, Philip. We have 8 grandchildren. Vincent, Elliott and Benjamin are brothers. Ellie, Scarlett, and Wren are sisters. Creed is an only child for now. When I am not working, I spend as much time with them as possible. More often than not, it's a wild and crazy ride, but I wouldn't trade this chosen chaos for anything else. This is my 6th year at Baton Rouge Center and my 3rd year as the K-2 Reading Interventionist. I teach groups of five throughout the day in the Pink Flamingo Office. I am excited to see the great things in store for us at BRCVPA this year.

MY CHILDHOOD:

I grew up in Ponchatoula, Louisiana on a strawberry farm. I am the middle sister and the only left-handed person with red hair in my immediate and extended family. Reading and writing were my first loves as a child and remain a huge part of who I am today. I own approximately 3000 children's books and love sharing them with my students.

EDUCATION:

I attended Ponchatoula High School and could most often be found in the library when not in class. I graduated from SLU with a degree in Elementary Education. I have taught every grade from K-8 at some point in my career. I enjoyed each grade level for different reasons. I still enjoy taking courses to learn more about how children learn to read and write.
