

THE BASICS:

Hello Everyone! My name is Kimberly Turner and this is my second year at BRCVPA! I am from a small town in EAST Feliciana Parish called Ethel, but currently reside in Baton Rouge with my wonderful blended family. I am a very proud mother of 3 wonderful children (2 boys, 1 girl) whose ages are 14, 12, and 10. This is also my 2nd year as a pre-k teacher and I am just as excited as last year to begin! My goal is to make this year even more successful as the last. I can't wait to spend the next year with all of my new babies. This year will be a blast!

HOOD:

Ethel, Louisiana which is in East Feliciana Parish. I attended Slaughter Elementary and then moved on to Jackson Middle and then to complete my grade school years. I was the Battalion commander in the drill team, head of the color guard, captain on my cadet challenge team, I played basketball, ran track, and was a joined the military in September of 2007. I trained in Fort Belvoir South Carolina. After graduating from basic training I went on to cooking school in Fort Lee Virginia to become a military chef. In 2010 I went to Camp Beauregard to become a military police officer to support my unit to Iraq. I've done many deployments, but as time went on, my family decided to serve in the guard and became an active dance instructor while going to school at the University of Phoenix. I obtained my bachelor's degree in education and now I am a pre-k teacher!
